

Case-Based Surveillance Report: Viral Hepatitis A in Zgharta Up to week 40

In Zgharta, the highest number of viral hepatitis A (VHA) cases reported were in October week 44 and December week 49 of 2023, (5 cases each). In the past 52 weeks, there were 47 reported cases in Zgharta district of VHA, in an incidence rate of 49/100,000. Of these cases, 36% were confirmed and 21% required hospitalization. Approximately 40% of VHA cases were reported in the 25-64 age group, with almost equal distribution between males and females. The confirmed VHA reported cases were 57% of the total, while 42% were clinically diagnosed. The prevalence of VHA disease was highest among the Lebanese population (66%). The region of West Bekaa, Baalback, and Rachaya exhibited the highest cumulative incidence of VHA, with rates ranging from 2843 to 14958 cases per 100,000 population.

Number of cases 2024: 20 cases

Incidence rate for last 52 weeks: 49/100,000

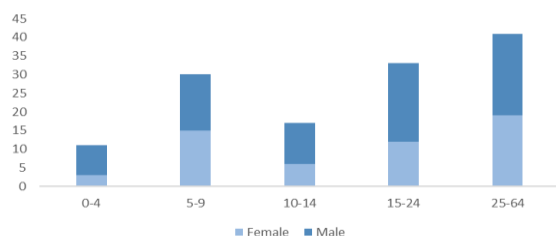

VHA cases distribution last 52 weeks, year 2023-2024, Zgharta, Lebanon

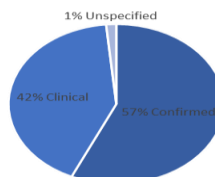

Column	Number of cases	Incidence rate/100,000	Percentage of confirmed	Percentage of inpatient
Week 40,2024	0	0	0%	0%
Past 4 weeks (week 40-week37, 2024)	1	1	100%	0%
Last 52 weeks (week 41- week 40,2024)	47	49	36%	21%
Year 2024	20	20.8	30%	25%

Number of cases, incidence rate, percentage of confirmed and inpatients for case based reported VHA cases, as per past week, last 4 weeks, last 52 weeks year 2023- 2024 and this year 2024, Zgharta, Lebanon

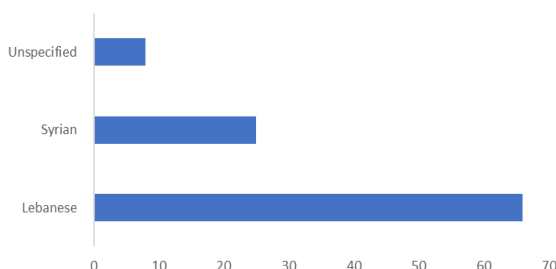

VHA cases distribution by age group, last 52 weeks, year 2023-2024, Zgharta, Lebanon

VHA disease distribution by classification, last 52 weeks, year 2023-2024, Zgharta, Lebanon

VHA disease prevalence by nationality, last 52 weeks, year 2023-2024, Zgharta, Lebanon

VHA cumulative incidence rate, last 52 days, Zgharta, Lebanon

